Eisenhower Wins Decisive Victories In Two States

COUNTY GIVES THE GENERAL BIG MAJORITY IN LIGHT VOTE WITH LITTLE INTEREST SEEN

A little over 27% of Warren county voters turned out to the polls yesterday to register a "strictly no contest" vote for General Dwight D. Eisenhower as the local choice for president. Other competition is hardly worthy of mention, insofar as the electorate here is concerned.

Of the 4384 Republican votes, of which there is a record in the County Commissioners' office this morning, "Ike" received 3466 in the preferential balloting. Next highest was Senator Taft, who received 484 write-in votes in 41 of the county's precincts. A few more may be added to that total as returns are tabulated.

Harold Stassen, who was the only other candidate on the ballot, received 407 votes. Governor Earl Warren, of California, received 10 write-ins in seven precincts; and General MacArthur received seven write-ins in six precincts.

With no Democratic candidates listed on the ballot, Governor Adlai Stevenson, of Illinois, received 11 votes in five precincts; and Senator Estes Kefauver amassed 19 in four precincts.

Edward Martin received 3238 votes for renomination for United States senator on the Republican ticket; James E. Scoblick, 280, and Steele Clark, 740. On the Democratic ticket for senator, Guy K. Bard received 420 votes, and G. Harold Wagner 285.

For Supreme Court Judge—Republican, John C. Arnold, 76; Harry M. Montgomery 1476, and on the Democratic ticket Judge Montgomery received 668 votes.

For Auditor General—Charles Barker, R., 5847; Edward Joseph, D., 266; Genevieve Blatt, D., 425.

For State Treasurer—Weldon B. Heyburn, R., 3564; George M. Leader, D., 518.

For General Assembly—Allan M. Gibson, R., 4123; Norman B. Mathews, D., 618.

Member State Committee—W. Scott Calderwood, R., 3864; M. E. Anderson, D., 537.

Warren county's only contest took place in Freehold township where two candidates vied for a job on the Republican County Committee. Ralph Dyke defeated Alphonso D. Cornish, 62 to 45.

The above totals are not expected to reflect much change when the Warren County Election Board convenes on Friday noon at the Court House to begin the official canvass of the vote.

Pennsylvanians Given Grants for Research

Washington, April 23—(P)—Grants for research totaling $406,660 were announced yesterday by the National Science Foundation.

Pennsylvania institutions included among those sharing the funds for research in biological and physical sciences were Bryn Mawr College, $34,000 for Dr. Rosalie G. Coyt; Carnegie Institute of Technology, $21,500 for Dr. Frederick D. Rossini; and Pennsylvania State College, $12,800 for Dr. Arthur H. Waynick.

M'KINNEY IS LOSER IN VENANGO COUNTY

Venango county Republicans apparently have decided to change Assemblyman, returns from the county's 78 districts revealed today.

John H. McKinney, long a legislator at Harrisburg, trailed Harry S. Gramlich by 321 votes. The complete totals were Gramlich 4,590, McKinney 4,269.

Gramlich, from Franklin, had the active backing of the Venango County Republican League. Mr. McKinney, a resident of Cranberry township, failed this year to get organization support after approximately a quarter century in the legislature.

In the presidential race, the Taft write-in was surprisingly large because of a well-organized support.

LOUISIANA GOVERNOR

New Orleans, April 23—(P)—Robert F. Kennon, of Minden, is Louisiana's new governor—to no one's surprise.

The Democratic nominee

By JACK BELL

Philadelphia, April 23—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's whopping popularity poll victory in the Pennsylvania primary prompted demands by his backers today for a lion's share of the state's 70 GOP presidential nominating votes.

But backers of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, the general's chief opponent for the Republican nomination, called the results "meaningless" so far as the division of convention votes is concerned.

Eisenhower, completing his duties as North Atlantic commander before returning to the United States, banged out what may be on the final count a 700,000 vote victory over Taft in the popularity race. Former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, on the ballot with Eisenhower, trailed in third place in the primary election yesterday.

It was a one-sided contest from the start, since Taft kept his name off the ballot and urged his backers not to write it in. He said the results wouldn't affect the delegate lineup.

However, in head-on contests for eight delegate places from the Pittsburgh area, an Eisenhower slate had won four and a Taft slate one, with three races still in doubt.

Of 52 other delegates elected by districts yesterday and 10 chosen at large previously, Associated Press polls showed that 17 lean toward Eisenhower, 16 are favorable to Taft, 19 are uncommitted and 10 races are not yet settled.

In the Democratic balloting, Sen. Estes Kefauver, the Tennessee coonskin cap campaigner, continued his practice of walking off with popularity contests.

But his preference primary victory over President Truman, who says he isn't running again, gave Kefauver no guarantee on any of the delegates on the 70-vote group which will go to Chicago publicly uncommitted. Many had signed pledges they will support the popular choice, but the pledges are not binding.

The Republican vote for U. S. senator in 7813 of 8,421 precincts in Pennsylvania:

James P. Scoblick 96604.
Steele Clark 152834.
Edward Martin 768978.
Supreme court, 7812 precincts:
John C. Arnold 660309.
Harry M. Montgomery 291718.
(Including 1026 of 1083 precincts in Allegheny county (Pittsburgh) and 1417 of 1417 precincts in Philadelphia).

FOREST CO. GIVES CAMPBELL MAJORITY

Tionesta, April 24—(P)—L. Merle Campbell of Oil City, candidate for delegate to the Republican national convention, swept to an easy victory and candidates General Dwight Eisenhower, Edward Martin and Harry Montgomery were given comfortable margins in their respective races, according to unofficial, complete results from Forest county's 14 voting precincts this morning.

Results in various contests follow:

President of the United States (Republican)—General Dwight Eisenhower, 504; Harold Stassen, 74; Senator Robert Taft, 122.

United States senator (Republican)—James P. Scoblick, 40; Steele Clark, 100; Edward Martin, 557.

Judge of the Supreme Court (Republican)—John C. Arnold, 500; Harry M. Montgomery, 170.

PREGNANT TEACHER CLAIMED 'NEGLIGENT'

McKees Rocks, April 23—(P)—The board of directors of McKees Rocks high school has reserved decision on whether to dismiss a teacher charged with "incompetence and negligence."

W. H. Church, district superintendent, who asked that Mrs. Helen L. Kolsun be dismissed, said last night the charges against her are based wholly on the fact that she is pregnant and unable to report for duty.

Norman Groudrine, board attorney, said a decision will probably be handed down May 1.

Warren County Chosen Site For Beef Field Day and Tour Of Northwest Livestock Ass'n

Warren and Forest counties were well represented, Tuesday night, at the third annual meeting and banquet of the Northwest Pennsylvania Livestock Association at Edinboro State Teachers' College, and Warren county was selected as the site for the Association's first beef field day and tour, July 16.

With so many prize winners from Warren county taking honors at the livestock show in Meadville last fall, it is felt the decision on a site for the tour came as a result of the fame won there by local boys and their steers.

T. R. Sponsler, vocational agricultural advisor for Warren county, was named chairman of the committee in charge of the proposed tour, to be assisted by Earl Lawrence, Richard Farver, Frank Dodd and Ralph Eckert.

Acting as master of ceremonies, Loyal D. Odner, managing director of the Pennsylvania Chain Store Council, introduced the guests and the speakers. M. L. Dalton of Blacksburg, Va., and A. R. Moon, supervising principal of the Cochran consolidated school district and Association president, were speakers and a panel discussion was led by Dr. E. L. Nixon in which Norman Van Ord and Earl Lawrence took part.

Everett Landin, principal of Sugar Grove-Farmington High school, was song leader and his brother, Harold Landin, was pianist.

Among the 325 in attendance were about 15 FFA boys and their parents from Warren and Forest counties, as well as the following: Elvenda M. Fagley, county home economics advisor; Dorothy Wakefield, last year's livestock queen; Earl Lawrence and Harry Bergstrom, association directors; Walter Nielsen, T. R. Sponsler, James Looney, Karl Flowers, Harold Seigworth, Gunnard Benson, Blam Mead, Norman Van Ord, Everett Landin and Harold Landin.

PROGRESS IN KOREA Awaits Outcome Of Talks on Exchange

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
Munson, April 23—(P)—Allied truce negotiators accused the Communists today of dodging the main issue blocking arrangements for enforcing a Korean armistice.

The Communists replied there would be "no progress at all" unless the United Nations command changed its attitude.

The exchange ended a 19-minute session of staff officers at Panmunjon. No progress was made toward settling truce supervision disputes—Communist nomination of Russia as a neutral inspector and Allied insistence the Reds be barred from repairing military airfields.

It appeared more and more that the truce supervision negotiators were awaiting outcome of secret negotiations in a neighboring tent on prisoner exchange. The prisoner session lasted two hours. There was no report on what happened.

During negotiations, Allied artillery shells burst in a brief but heavy barrage near the Panmunjon neutral zone. The concussion shook the wooden floors of the conference tents.

NEWCOMERS UNSEAT 8 HOUSE MEMBERS

Harrisburg, April 23—(P)—Eight house incumbents, including two top-ranking committee chairmen, lost their bids for re-election to the general assembly, incomplete returns showed today.

Chairman, John H. McKinney (R-Venango) of the house judiciary committee, and chairman Samuel B. Dennison (R-Jefferson), of the House motor vehicles committee, were defeated by newcomers for party nominations.

In the senate, the only four incumbents facing opposition were successful in winning party nominations. They were Sens. George N. Wade (R-Cumberland); Anthony J. Di-Silvestro (D-Phila.); and C. Arthur Blass (D-Erie), and John J. Haluska (D-Cambria).

Along with McKinney and Dennison, these other Republican house members failed to win re-nominations:

Rep. Earl Pitzer was defeated in Adams county by former Assemblyman Francis J. Worley; Rep. Louis Sax (R-Phila.) was unseated by Paul Silverstein and Rep. Edward S. Swartz (R-Dauphin) was unseated by John Moody, of Harrisburg.

Two Northampton county Democrats—Reps. Elwood M. Good and John M. Jones—lost their bid for re-nomination as did Rep. Edward Conway (D-Phila.).

Sen. John J. Haluska (D-Cambria) easily won the Democratic nomination for reelection despite a bitter campaign waged against him by George J. Pavlock.

CROWDS AT BLOMQUIST'S

Blomquist's Furniture Shop at North Warren was visited by hundreds, Tuesday, upon the occasion of the introduction of the Norge line of appliances to the Blomquist array of articles intended for good living. Many of Mr. Blomquist's visitors paused to reminisce and tell him how long they had used the Norge products, some as long as 25 years. The Norge refrigerators, ranges and washers which Mr. Blomquist has on display won widespread admiration.

SUDDEN DEATH AT STATE

George Nelson, aged 73, a patient at the Warren State Hospital, admitted from Elk county, dropped dead about 11:50 o'clock this morning while at lunch in the dining room of the main building. The death is being investigated by the coroner's office.

PREDICTS VICTORY ON FIRST BALLOT

Washington, April 23—(P)—Sen. Frank Carlson, of Kansas, director of national Eisenhower-for-President headquarters, said today the general is on his way "to a first ballot victory in the Republican national convention."

The senator said in a statement the "tremendous sweeps" for Eisenhower in Pennsylvania and New York are "new evidences of his great popular appeal 'to Republican voters.'"

In addition, said Carlson, "it should not be overlooked that town caucuses yesterday in Vermont assured a solid Vermont delegation for Eisenhower, while in Colorado, district conventions were giving Ike a big lead."

The senator predicted that Eisenhower will score a 13-2 victory in Louisiana today "if the results of local district meetings are recognized."

PLANE RECAPTURE IN FLIGHT IS CLAIMED

Washington, April 23—(P)—The launching of an F-84 jet fighter plane from a B-36 bomber in flight has been announced by the Air Force.

It gave only that bare statement in reply to inquiries about a story in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram saying the big bombers now can carry jet fighters inside their A-bomb bays, launch them in the air and recapture them in flight.

Asked about the recapture of launched planes, the Air Force would not comment.

The Star-Telegram said the historic flight was made last Friday. The F-84 Model F has a weight ranging up to 25,000 pounds, a maximum speed of more than 600 miles an hour, a combat radius of more than 850 miles and can carry bombloads up to 4,000 pounds.

RAHWAY'S REBELLING PRISONERS SURRENDER

Rahway, N. J., April 23—(P)—Rebellious convicts at Rahway state prison farm surrendered meekly to authorities late yesterday, ending a five-day mutiny.

The 231 rebels, who had been barricaded in a dormitory wing for almost 115 hours, gave up after freeing eight guards they held as hostages.

Unshaven and haggard, the convicts shuffled slowly in pairs out of the building from which they earlier had shouted defiance to prison authorities.

REVIEW INCREASE

Philadelphia, April 24—(P)—A two-year-old rate increase on local calls by the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania has been sent back to the State Public Utility Commission (PUC) for further review. The action was taken yesterday by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in a ruling on appeals filed by the city of Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania Industrial Council.

WARREN COUNTY YOUNG MEN who left last night for actual induction into the Army at Harrisburg today are shown in the above picture while the lower picture is of "The Commandos," a band made up of Warren High school students who serenaded the inductees before an immense crowd gathered at the Pennsylvania station to wish the future soldiers Godspeed. Deane Leonard Swanson was leader of the departing group while the others in the picture are Sam Louis Berard, Milton Merle Brown, Jr., Robert Murray Eadie, Donald Edwin Erickson, Ralph Kenneth Fischer, George Andrew Flasher, Wayne Clifford Grant, Jr., David Leroy Jewell, John Frederick Klyander, James Vincent Mazzu, Jr., Wyllys Westcott Mead, Jr., Richard Stanley Miller, Gilbert Oscar Nielsen, Paul Sabat, Elwood Leroy Sandberg, Robt. James Schaefer, Walter Arnold Swanson, and Chas. August Williams. Arrangements for a farewell party at the station were in charge of Commandant Charles Warrner and members of the Joseph H. Pendleton Detachment of the Marine Corps League. The Masteron Transfer Co. provided a large flat truck as a bandstand, the Walker Creamery Products Co. packed ice cream novelties for the boys to enjoy on the train, and the music by "The Commandos" won great praise, the following boys making up the band: John Kishner, leader, Skip Lawrence, Stuart Wimerter, Robert Elach, Louis Garb, Robert Koebler, Richard Carlson, James Mason, James Sadler, John Timm, Robert Bannon, Jim Lohing, Jerry McConnell, Charles Eate, Douglas Hatrick, Jack O'Neill, Pete Pepke, Thomas Barlowe and Ronald Wood. Major Charles Schaefer of the Salvation Army, and Commander Louis Vizza of the American Legion, were on hand to provide the boys with going-away gifts, while members of the Warren County Selective Service Board and the office staff also were present along with hundreds of relatives and friends.

Dinner Meeting Of Chamber Attracts Large Attendance

There were 125 in attendance at last night's dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, including members from all the service clubs and both the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce.

Nat W. Drake, secretary of the Warren Chamber of Commerce, acted as toastmaster and introduced the presidents of all the organizations represented, who were all seated at the speakers' table, as follows: Miss Elizabeth Brasington, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club; Miss Mary Topper, president of Zonta; William E. Lutz, president of Rotary; C. E. Betts, president of Kiwanis; Robert Shuels, president of Lions; and Harry F. Schmidt, president of the Jaycees. Also introduced were two guests from the Jamestown Chamber of Commerce, Walton Landin and Kirk Cameron.

The toastmaster then introduced James H. Frantz, president of the Warren Chamber, who in turn introduced Frederick C. Arnold and Edison Joffus, both of the Petroleum Chemical Division of Du Pont Co., the former being the local representative. Mr. Frantz then introduced Mr. Shannon, the speaker, and his hour-long lecture-demonstration was very much enjoyed by all present.

While the group was assembling, and during the dinner, music was provided by Warner Abigren's 10-piece dance band, all members being high school students.

The Warren Chamber of Commerce aims to sponsor two civic dinners each year, one in the spring and one in the fall, having outstanding out of town speakers.

Eisenhower Has No Comment, Ill in Bed

Paris, April 23—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower still was abed today with a cold and throat infection and aides said it was "impossible" to ask his comment on results of the New York and Pennsylvania presidential primary elections.

Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, surgeon general at Eisenhower's headquarters near here, said the general's condition is improving and "we hope to get him back to his desk tomorrow."

Eisenhower has been ill since last Saturday.

Find Lifeless Body Of William Wright, Retired Merchant

William H. Wright, 51, well known business man and writer, was found dead about 10:50 o'clock this morning in the attic of his home, 1 Fourth avenue.

Chief of Police M. Evan and Coroner Ed Lowrey, who were called, said that death was caused from a bullet wound in the chest inflicted by a 12-gauge double barreled shotgun which lay nearby.

The officials were advised that Mr. Wright, convalescing from a recent illness, was looking forward to a fishing expedition next Sunday with a brother, Francis, of Cleveland, and was assembling and inspecting his fishing tackle when the tragedy occurred. Discovery of the death was made by Mrs. Wright who became alarmed when she received no reply to a greeting called to him.

Mr. Wright was born in Cadiz, (Turn to Page Eleven)

Long Illness Fatal To Fred C. Bogart, Former Circus Man

Fred Carter Bogart, 76, well known resident of the Warren-Jamestown road, who gained fame in the amusement world as a vaudeville performer and owner of "The Fred Elzor Circus," died Tuesday evening at 5:45 o'clock after a long illness.

Billed under the name of Fred Elzor, Mr. Bogart launched his career in the amusement world as a contortionist and balancer. At one time he played 31 straight weeks in a New York theater. Over forty years ago when the present Columbia theater was erected by the late J. D. Woodard, and featured vaudeville acts along with silent movies and illustrated songs, Mr. Bogart was one of the early managers of what was then called The Woodard theater. Later he embarked into the amusement business as owner of The Fred Elzor Shows which became known as the leading wagon circus on the road, playing from one end of the country to the other. For 25 years, until his retirement, he had been a valued employee of Warren State Hospital as an attendant.

Mr. Bogart was born in Wilkes-Barre, October 24, 1875, but had resided in Warren county for the past 47 years. He is survived by his wife, Winifred R.; a son Robert L., and daughter Mrs. June Wedlock, all residents of Warren-Jamestown road; three grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Lettie McCann, Breinigsville.

Friends are being received at the Lutz-VerMilyea Funeral Home where services will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock, with Rev. John Buck, of the Russell Methodist church, officiating. Interment will be in Pine Grove cemetery.

TREMENDOUS VOTE GIVEN IN NEW YORK

Albany, N. Y., April 23—(P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's supporters beat down most of yesterday's primary opposition and apparently assured him of at least 85 or 90 of New York's 96 national convention presidential votes.

Friends of the general won eight of the 11 Republican contests, although several of the winners are not definitely committed to his cause.

Avowed backers of Sen. Robert A. Taft won three.

The balloting was sparse, as expected, and shed little light on the leanings of the voting masses of the nation's most populous state.

New York delegates will go to the Chicago convention of both major parties unpledged and uninstructed.

The primary appeared to be another victory for Gov. Dewey, who strongly backed Eisenhower. Dewey, however, seemed to have lost his effort to deliver a solid pro-Eisenhower delegate block to Chicago.

Taft men defeated two avowed supporters of Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Manhattan's third congressional district and gained a split in two photo-finish contests with organization candidates in the 16th, comprised of part of lower Manhattan and Staten Island.

However, since the primary balloting was non-preferential and no delegates are bound by the result, Dewey is expected to press Eisenhower's cause on any wavering delegates.

Most of New York's 94 Democratic convention votes will go to W. Averell Harriman, Federal Mutual Security Administrator, a "favorite-son" candidate. Harriman was endorsed by 45 of the state's 62 Democratic county chairmen last week and yesterday announced he would actively seek the nomination.

Gettysburg Favors Ike as Adopted Son

Gettysburg, Pa., April 23—(P)—Adams county favored Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, its adopted son, on both Republican and Democratic ballots in yesterday's presidential preference test.

Eisenhower, who owns a farm just outside this historic Civil War battlefield town, ran up a total of 3,929 votes on the GOP ballot to 412 for Harold Stassen and 872 write-in votes for Sen. Robert A. Taft.

On the Democratic side, where all votes were write-ins, the NATC chief polled 342 votes against 318 for Sen. Estes Kefauver, and 65 for President Harry Truman.

Other write-ins on the Democratic ticket showed a hodge-podge of preferences for both Democrats and Republicans. They included: Sen. Taft 43, Averell Harriman 25, Gen. Douglas MacArthur 19, Sen. Richard Russell 11, Illinois Gov. Adlai Stevenson 7, Vice President Alben Barkley and Stassen 5 each, Pittsburgh Mayor David Lawrence 2, and Gov. John S. Fine, Justice William O. Douglas and J. Edgar Hoover 1 each.

Titusville Is First In Election Returns

Titusville, April 23—(P)—The first town in the state to complete tabulations in the primary was Titusville, in Crawford county in the north-central part of the state. The returns from all seven precincts of the city gave Gen. Eisenhower 945 votes to Stassen's 88 and Taft's 80.

Miller Shop Joins To Interest Women In USAF Activities

The Miller Shop on Liberty Street has joined in an unusual nation-wide campaign this week to focus Warren's attention on the country's urgent need for pilots, aircraft observers and women in the Air Force. The period, which started last Saturday and will run through this Saturday, has been designated as "America's Retailers Air Force Recruiting Week", and more than 5,000 stores from coast to coast are devoting windows and interior space to Air Force displays.

This unprecedented recruiting campaign will be accomplished at no cost to the Government. It climaxes six months of planning by the Air Force, the National Retail Dry Goods Association and business organizations. Its goal is to help fill the pressing need for 20,000 applicants for Aviation Cadet training and 40,000 Women in the Air Force.

The window display at Miller's Dress Shop features the Winter and Summer Uniform for the WAF designed by Hatt Carnegie, plus a board display featuring some of the many schooling opportunities for men in the Air Force.

For any information contact the United States Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, Warren.

CARS, SIDESWIPES

State police were called to Jackson street extension, about one-fourth mile out of town shortly after 10 o'clock last evening when cars operated by John C. Hanson, 16 Bradley street, and Leslie Hanna, Warren RD 1, collided while going in opposite directions. No one was injured; total damage was estimated at $75, officers said.

RAISING CAMP FUND

Members of Boy Scout Troop 10 of the Holy Redeemer church have made extensive plans for the round and square dance to be held at the Marconi Outing Club, Friday night, to aid the Scouts in their drive for funds for the summer camp visit to Oimsted. The Scouts have been on the go, selling tickets for the dance, and these also may be purchased at the door, Friday night.

STRUCK BY CAR

James Howell, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Howell, of Garland, sustained minor injuries about 3:45 p. m. yesterday when he was struck near Garland school by a car operated by an Oil City motorist whose name was not learned. The youngster was taken to the office of Dr. Thomas Gettings, in Youngsville, where he was treated for abrasions of the right side and sent home. His condition is reported as good today.

EATON PLACE SOLD

William Smith and William Maier, trading as the Smith and Maier GLF Service, 704 Pennsylvania avenue, east, have purchased the former Herbert G. Eaton property on the Warren-Kinzua road and have engaged Albert Toner to remove the old mansion which was gutted by fire in January of 1951. The estate was sold to Smith and Maier by Mrs. Jean D. Munda and Mrs. Della Gilbert of Pittsburgh, who had bought the property with plans to establish a nursing home until it was destroyed by fire. Smith and Maier plan to subdivide the land for sale as building lots and will rebuild the barn for use as their GLF store. Considerable progress already has been made in razing the old mansion.

NUISANCE CALLS

Police were recipient of the usual number of routine and nuisance calls during the night. At 8:10 p. m., kids were reported throwing stones at passing cars near Henlock street. At 9:30, a strange noise was reported in the cellar of a building in the 200 block of Pennsylvania avenue, west. Investigation revealed nothing out of order. At midnight, officers were called to quell a family battle on the east side, told participants to shut up or be locked up. Shortly before two a. m., they gathered in a drunk from the railroad station on the west side. At three a. m., neighbors reported lights in a home in the center of town where the owners were known to be away. Police investigated, found nothing out of order. From three to six a. m., 20 cars parked on paved streets were tagged for violations.

"Selection of Dairy Sires" will be the subject discussed by Clyde Hall, dairy specialist at Penn State College, at a meeting in the Youngville Grange Hall Thursday evening at eight o'clock. This meeting is being sponsored by the Agriculture Extension Service and Warren County Artificial Breeding Cooperative. Its purpose is to assist the members of the Cooperative as well as others in making the best selections of sires available. Attention is called to an error on the card. The meeting is April 24, and not May 24th, as stated.

Warren County Man Will Oppose Gavin

Leon H. Gavin, of Oil City, was one of the Pennsylvania members of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress who were renominated without opposition for a place in the general election lists next fall. Representing the Republican party, Gavin's opponent will be Fred Barr, well known instructor and Warren county Democrat, at Tidoute. It will be the sixth time that Mr. Gavin has sought the office and the second time for Mr. Barr.

Mr. Gavin is spending the day in Warren being scheduled as one of the speakers at the Northwest District meeting of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women.

In Warren county Rep. Gavin received a complimentary vote of 4,066. Prof. Barr received 669 votes on the Democratic ticket.

FAIR TRADE ACT

Congress is expected to begin action soon on the so-called "fair trade" legislation.

The Supreme Court last year knocked out the Fair Trade Act. This act had the effect of excluding from liability to the anti-trust laws those retail stores which agreed to sell certain goods at prices fixed by the manufacturers.

In the action it takes on legislative measures now before it, the House of Representatives, which will be the first of two branches of Congress to act, can either over-ride the court or stand by its decision.

Speaking solely in the interests of the country's 150 million consumers, it would certainly appear that congress in this case can best serve the people by taking no action at all. In other words, by letting stand the decision of the Supreme Court.

Among the principal commodities whose prices are fixed by fair trade laws are some, but not all, liquors, drugs, electrical appliances, cosmetics, sports equipment and clothing. Fair trade laws are in effect in 45 states.

What the fair trade law means in the way of higher prices is indicated in a survey taken a few years ago by Fortune Magazine. Summarized, the survey showed:

"1. A comparison of 117 branded drug items showed that 35 cost about one-third less in Washington, D. C., which has no fair trade law, than in Maryland, where resale prices maintenance is legal; 38 cost about one-quarter less, and 29 cost one-seventh less.

"2. Fifty-four fair trade drug items cost an average of 16.2 per cent more on the east bank of the Mississippi (Illinois), where fair trade is legal, than on the St. Louis side (Missouri), where it is not."

Q. Forrest Walker, economist for Macy's department store in New York, for years a leader in the fight against fair trade laws, testified before a congressional committee in February:

"Private price-fixing invariably and inevitably works against consumers. Public policy requires the protection of millions of consumers, not the self-interest of a handful of manufacturers and retailers."

The late Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, of the Supreme Court, stated in connection with the case of the Dr. Miles Medical Company:

"The complainant having sold its product at prices satisfactory to itself, the public is entitled to whatever advantages may be derived from competition in the subsequent traffic."

In other words, Chief Justice Hughes was backing up the opinion of many an American that since our economy is based on the competitive free-enterprise system, let's allow that system to function unfettered by restrictions favoring a few.

Congress has legislated to insure healthful competition among manufacturers. Let it act now to insure the same kind of competition among retail stores, with the consequent price benefits to consumers.

ERNEST ANUNDSON

Residents of Sheffield as well as a host of friends over a wide area he had acquired through his business dealings covering a half century, join in the general sorrow expressed over the passing of Ernest F. Anundson, 72, who passed away at the Warren General Hospital Tuesday after a brief illness. Quiet and unassuming, always taking time to greet his friends, Mr. Anundson is going to be missed by many. A contractor of integrity and learning he had constructed numerous fine buildings that will stand as monuments to his business acumen. Among these are the laundry at the State Hospital; Post Office at Union City; schools in Tiona, Sheffield, Starbrick, Warren and Akron, N. Y. He also erected the first cement highway 33 years ago through the town of Sheffield. Characteristic of his tireless efforts to aid others, Mr. Anundson, because he had suffered from a heart ailment, had made a request that instead of flowers his friends contribute to "The Heart Fund" in his memory. He was a good neighbor and churchman, faithful to his friends, considerate to others.

The Welcome mat is out today for delegates to the Northwest Regional meeting of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women, holding forth at the community house at North Warren.

If You Ask Us, He's Courting the Wrong Person

Here And There

One of the projects before Farrah Grotto, Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm, is the organization of a uniformed patrol. The proposal has been given added incentive through the fact that during the past three weeks several invitations for the patrol to participate in parades in conjunction with various ceremonies in the area have been received. Now some of the boys have decided that it will look just grand to have ten or twelve men in uniform traipsing here and there. So far, according to reports, Guy Albaugh, Morris Shulman, Dick Yaggie, Glenn Mickelson, Bert Punskey and Don Anderson are ready to buy the goods and have their womenfolk sew them together. A committee in charge has discovered that materials will cost only about $600 and an old pair of shoes which can be painted gold. It has also been reported that a "prophet" is fixing up a collection of scimitars for patrol members to carry in parades and other activities. With these arrangements well in hand efforts are being concentrated on securing about a dozen or so to sign up so that the goods can be ordered. It should be mentioned in passing that the Grotto is getting ready to be represented in the Fourth of July celebration parade with a float. One of the early appearances of the patrol will be June 7th during a ceremonial sponsored by Sharrif Grotto of Dunkirk, N. Y., which is expected to be a dress rehearsal for the Fourth of July affair.

Everybody should get behind the Post Office Department suggestion for a "Rural Mail Box Improvement Week," April 27 to May 3. This is the time of year when the patrons of rural routes go to work for their mail men. With the rapid development of housing and the increasing volume of mail, the work of most rural carriers almost has doubled in the past few years. In some cases where the patron has an old open-type box that is hard to see into, a new approved type should be provided. This will give the patron better service and keep his valuable mail safe and dry. Where several boxes can be grouped together on a board erected on posts firmly planted, it will make serving the boxes much easier and add greatly to the appearance of the countryside. Carriers will be glad to make suggestions as to the height and location of boxes or explain any of the services offered by the Post Office through its rural carriers. Carriers are asking the public to cooperate and improve the appearance of boxes along Warren county roads. This sounds like a good project for Granges, Volunteer Fire Departments and similar groups to get behind. During the month of May each rural route is inspected by a representative of the Post Office Department. This inspector checks on roads, mail boxes and general conditions of all rural routes. Help make Warren county's the best!

This 'n' That. The oldest of old-timers find it difficult to recall a quieter election night at the commissioners' office than was the case Tuesday evening, with few persons around excepting court house officials, and the janitor, waiting to close up. It's always a satisfaction to find a bouquet in a note attached to a news item, such as the one received from Mrs. James R. Cober, Indiana, Pa., former Dartmouth street resident, who writes "We all enjoy the Times-Mirror and keep up with all Warren events even though we do live in Indiana!" Understand the scaffolding is being erected for members of Holy Redeemer parish to do some house-cleaning in their attractive church. . . . Congressman Gavin, here to address the Republican Women's district meeting today, was receiving congratulations from Warren folks at all party registrations on his nomination for another term at Washington. . . . Warren today became the headquarters of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, with the appearance here this afternoon of Grand Exalted Ruler Howard R. Davis and staff, guests at a reception at the club house from 4:40 until 6:00 o'clock. . . . Patrolman Bill Hewitt, of the Warren Police Department, who submitted to a surgical operation at the Warren General Hospital recently, will be around greeting friends before too long, having been removed to his home today. . . . The Minute Man Committee of the Jaycees is calling some members to augment the group in cleaning up the parking lot on the west side near the airport, to be used on circus day, with "work bee" scheduled for Saturday. . . . State and Federal Forestry officials have a breathing spell as a result of the light rain during the night and early morning.

Wage, Price Spiral Reflects Marked Rise in U. S. Budget

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The question of how much inflationary cost there is in the U. S. government budget is timely again. Legislation to extend price and wage controls is before Congress. So are appropriation bills for next year's national defense, foreign aid and general government expenditures.

Congress is also preparing to set up a new joint Senate-House committee with a big staff to check on spending. Strike threats over wage increases demanded on the basis of inflationary living costs are current in steel, oil, railroad, telegraph and other key industries.

All these industries supply things that the government buys. Any increases in costs resulting from wage and price increases are therefore bound to be reflected in the Federal budget.

Best estimates today are that since the start of the Korean war all government costs have risen by an inflationary factor of 10 to 12 per cent. When in May, 1951, General George C. Marshall said that inflation had robbed the armed services of $7 billion out of their $35 billion appropriation for that year, he may have overstated the case. This would be a 20 per cent inflationary boost.

There is no index on the cost of a battleship, an airplane or a tank. Designs change. New models are far more complicated than the old. Comparing the cost of a $5000 World War II Norden bombsight with a $250,000 electronic bombsight becomes meaningless.

ON government pay scales an inflationary factor may be figured. Congress raised all government pay rates in July, 1950, just after the Korean war broke out. Increases were from $200 to $300 a year, depending on grade. Average increase was about 10 per cent.

Some 600,000 "blue collar" government employees—craft workers in arsenals and similar installations receiving union pay scales—have had additional raises. They have been in line with wage increases for comparable work in private industry, since the Korean war broke out, and so may be considered inflationary costs.

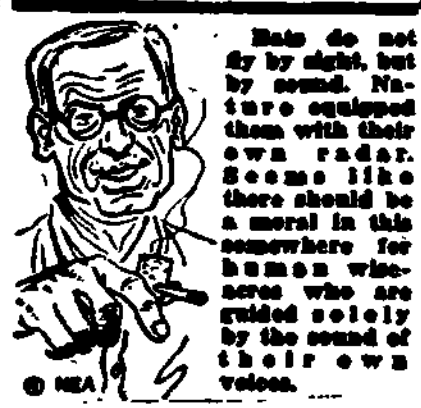

Not all government payroll increases since the Korean war have been due to raised wage rates, however. Most of the increased cost has been due to the employment of 500,000 more civilians in the first two years of the war, with another 200,000 scheduled for hiring in the next fiscal year.

This will raise the government's civilian payroll from $7.6 billion this year to $8 billion for an estimated average of 2,700,000 employees in fiscal 1953. In fiscal 1950 the payroll was $6.8 billion for 2,000,000 employees. This represents a 21 per cent increase in payroll, but the cost per employee is reduced from an average of $3300 to $3000 a year.

THESE figures do not include the military payroll of $10 billion for over three million troops this year. This will rise to $11 billion for nearly four million troops in the coming year. A military pay increase bill now before Congress may raise this figure another $800 million. This will be another inflationary boost of over 7 per cent on payroll, if finally approved.

Menu of Summer Meals is Guide for Garden Schedule

Fastest Grown Vegetables are Radishes, Lettuce and Onions from Sets.

To prepare a production schedule for a Liberty garden is a matter of arithmetic. Take carrots, for example. How often do you serve carrots to your family? Once a week, twice a week, or three times? It should not be hard to decide that.

The harvest of carrots from a single sowing will last in top condition at least eight weeks. During that period, say, you will serve carrots sixteen times, or twice a week. A row of carrots two feet long will provide an ample serving for the average family. So your first sowing of carrots should be 32 feet long.

This should be followed by a second sowing, timed to mature when the first crop has been harvested; and three sowings should see you through the season, so far as table use is concerned.

If you will estimate the number of family servings each week you expect to use of all short-harvest vegetables, you can figure out the number of sowings, and the length of row for each, from the data in the accompanying table.

This lists the vegetables, of which several sowings should be made, and gives data to enable you to plan successive sowings, and also the space which will be required for each crop, in order to produce enough for family needs, without waste.

Column 1 gives the time each harvest lasts from one sowing, and in Column 2, the space to plant in the garden row, to provide one serving for a family of four.

Data on days to table size is given in most seed catalogues for every vegetable variety. Early varieties of lettuce will be ready in 40 days; while late head lettuce may take 90 days to mature. By sowing early and late varieties at the same time, you can have a longer harvest. This is advisable for sweet corn, because

Sow Each of These Vegetables Several Times

Vegetable	Harvest from one sowing lasts	Grow for family serving
Beans, snap	4 weeks	1 foot
Beets	6 weeks	1 foot
Carrots	8 weeks	2 feet
Cucumbers	4 weeks	2 feet
Endive	6 weeks	1 foot
Lettuce	6 weeks	1 foot
Kohlrabi	3 weeks	2 feet
Turnips	2 weeks	1 1/2 feet
Spinach	2 weeks	3 feet
Sweet Corn	10 days	4 feet
Onion Sets	4 weeks	1 foot
Peas	2 weeks	3 feet
Radish, early	1 week	1 foot
summer	2 weeks	1 foot
winter	6 weeks	1 foot

late varieties do better in late summer and early fall weather. But this practice requires more space. Since the slow maturing varieties occupy soil which could be used for something else, if a succession of quick growing crops were sown.

Peas, lettuce, radishes and spinach will not do well in July and early August, so do not plant these crops to yield in hot weather, but sow them for early summer and fall harvests only. All the others should be sown two or three times, or more, with the last sowing timed to mature before killing frosts arrive.

Do not follow a leaf crop, seed crop, or root crop with one of the same class, but use a different type, to avoid disease and soil exhaustion.

Before sowing a second crop, dig up the soil and apply plant food again, 2 pounds to 100 square feet, or 100 feet of row.

Educational Trip Is Enjoyed by Sugar Grove Girl Scouts

Sugar Grove, Apr. 23—On Saturday, 48 Girl Scouts, leaders, troop members, some mothers, and a few Boy Scouts who are working on insect badges and were accompanied by their leader, left by chartered bus for Pittsburgh, returning at 10:30 the same evening. The first place visited was the Carnegie Museum, where they were conducted by a guide and where they had lunch in the cafeteria. The next place was the Hippis Conservatory, to visit the Spring Flower Show and then to the Flower Park, Nature Museum, where Mr. Schemas, park naturalist, gave the visitors a talk on "Arts and Crafts in Nature" and conducted a walk near a brook and continued his talk with illustrations from nature. En route some of the group enjoyed a picnic upper at a roadside park. The delightful weather made the trip a delightful and educational trip. Last year, the Girl Scouts took a similar trip to Buffalo.

Members of the Free Methodist congregation are making improvements to the interior of the church building, including some redecorating. Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Matve, at Mapleholm, were Mary Kmetz, mother of Mrs. Matve, and Mrs. I. C. Collier, sister of Mrs. Matve, husband and daughter, Alyce Mae, Cleveland, O. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Tomcho, Jr., and sons, Ronald and John, Union City; Hilda Kramer, a displaced person, from Kornwestheim, Germany.

TWO LOCAL AIRMEN ARRIVE IN HAWAII

Two local airmen are serving with Carrier Air Group Five, currently aboard the aircraft carrier USS Essex, which recently arrived in Hawaii on its way home to San Diego after nine months in Korean waters. They are John R. Livingston, aviation photographer's mate first class, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Livingston, 8 Nesmith place, and Donald R. Lewis, aviation electrician's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Lewis, 18 Mill street, Sheffield.

The early birds always catch the worms, in the Navy as elsewhere, and Group Five has always made it a point to be early, having been the first Navy air group to fly against the North Koreans. At the outbreak of the Korean campaign, Group Five was based aboard the carrier USS Valley Forge. In addition to being the first to fly against the North Koreans, it was also the first air group to initiate the Navy Panther jet in combat. In December, 1950, the group returned to San Diego and was reformed for departure aboard the Essex to begin its second Korean cruise.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES A. WILLIAMS

White gladioli and palms formed the setting in First Methodist church for the wedding of Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Black, 17 Branch street, and Charles A. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Williams, 17 Branch street. The wedding ceremony was read by Rev. C. W. Baldwin at 3:00 p. m. Saturday, April 19, with traditional wedding vows played by the organist.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an off-white gown of white net and tulle, with high neckline and a bodice of lace. Her veil fell under length and her flowers were white carnations centered in a white orchid.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Eugene B. Hedges, Saginaw, Mich., wore an aqua gown of similar style and carried carnations. The matching nosegay in her hand.

William Williams served his father as best man and usher. The groomsmen were Richard Miller, of Russell, and Phillip Randall, of Akeley. Mrs. Black chose a black suit and Mrs. Williams a gray print.

Each with black accessories and corsage of red rosebuds. The reception followed immediately in the church parlors, with guests from Akeley, Clarendon, Starbuck, Irvine, North Warren, Sugar Grove, Hubbard, O.; Frewsburg, N. Y., and Saginaw, Mich. White carnations, snapdragons and sweet peas were used in delicate appointments and miniature bridal figures topped the three-tiered wedding cake.

After a short wedding trip, the newlyweds are at home at 17 Branch street. Pre-nuptial included personal showers given by Marilyn Dietrich and Jean McDannel; Mrs. Richard Black and Mrs. Gerald Black; with the rehearsal dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. William Williams.

LUTHERAN EVENTS
Pastor C. J. Franzen, Youngsville, announces these events for his Lutheran charge: Wednesday—Matthias Dorcas Society of Hessel Valley will sponsor a warm sugar social at the church at 8:00 p. m., with pictures of Guatemala to be shown. Thursday—Saron Bible Class will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dale at 8:00 p. m. Thursday, with Mrs. Fred Beckenbach as co-hostess for a social evening.

ZONTA CLUB DINNER
Beulah Nichols and Alice Davis will be in charge of arrangements for the regular dinner-meeting of Zonta Club, 6:30 p. m. Thursday at the YWCA activities building.

Speeding on U. S. streets and highways last year killed 13,730 men, women and children.

Chandlers Valley Elementary Pupils Giving Spring Concert in Sugar Grove

At 8:15 p. m. Friday in the Sugar Grove High School auditorium, pupils of the Chandlers Valley elementary school will present a spring concert to which they cordially invite all parents and school friends.

The program will be divided into two parts, the first of which will be a miniature operetta, "A Springtime Fantasy" by Mildred Wadsworth, based on Oscar Wilde's "The Selfish Giant." All children of grades one, two and three are included in this presentation, with the following having speaking parts:

Narrator, Ronald Passinger; Giant, Charles Morando; Stranger Child, LaVerne Eckdahl; Curly Top, Roger Slagle; Blue Eyes, Doris Irwin; Brown Eyes, Howard Flasher; Silken Top, Marilyn Morando; Heralds, Onolee and Delilah Stitak; Frost, Jeffrey Slagins; Snow, Lee Darling; Hall, Raymond McMillan; North Wind, Hubert Trask.

Choruses include flowers, birds, peach trees and angels. Directors are Caribelle Swanson and Mrs. Dorothy Rhoades.

Grades four, five and six will enact "Mulligan's Magic" by Alta Halverson Seymour and Helen Wing for the second portion of the program. Scene of this operetta is a general store, the youngsters "keeping store" throughout and the following as the principal characters:

Mulligan, Wayne Kipple; Dick, David Trask; Dorothy, Patty Passinger; Joan, Dawn Nobbs; Margie, Paula DuBois; Jerry, Ella-worth Mead; Slump, Clayton Mesler; Dan, Michael Zurkin; Mrs. Jones, Sally Griggs; Teddy, Dwight Work; Mrs. Skinner, Florence Irwin; Eileen, Judy Morando; Pete Nosey, Chester Frodelius; Mrs. White, Barbara Flasher; Mrs. Whitcomb, Joy Darling.

Choruses of fishermen, children and customers round out the cast. Mrs. Evelyn Ransom and Floyd Knobbs are directors.

Music of the program is under the direction of Mrs. June B. Andersen.

Akeley Methodist WSCS Installation

Akeley Methodist WSCS members enjoyed an afternoon meeting at the home of Julia Finzer, with Evelyn Haller as co-hostess and President Grace Granquist presiding. Twelve members and the pastor, Rev. John L. Buck, were in attendance.

The devotional topic was "Brotherhood in the World of Work," with the call to worship and a hymn, "Above the Hills of Time the Cross Is Gleaming," were read by the president; meditations were given by Mabel Larson and Christine Lundmark; scripture selections, Fern Way.

After the routine business and reports, officers for the year beginning in June were installed by the minister.

With Ellen Lundgren, secretary of local activities in charge, plans were made to serve a father and son dinner, the date to be announced later. It was also voted to hold a rummage sale in Jamestown in the near future. At the next meeting, May 14, the women will meet at 10:00 a. m. to clean the church, and a tureen dinner will be served. Attention was called to the spring district meeting to be held in First Methodist church, Kane, on May 16.

Rose Bradley, spiritual life secretary, read two poems, "He Gave His Own" and "There'll Always Be a God," and conducted the discussion period on the fifth and sixth chapter of Acts. After a vocal number, "You Cannot Hide From God," sung by Ora Miller and accompanied by Fern Way, the meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Bradley.

The afternoon was pleasantly concluded with refreshments served by the hostesses.

There were 1,600 more persons killed in U. S. motor vehicle accidents last year than in 1950.

Johnson And Carbaugh Wedding On April 19th

The marriage of Ruth Carbaugh and Eugene Johnson, both of Warren, was solemnized Saturday, April 19, at 11:00 o'clock in Grace Methodist church by the Rev. C. W. Baldwin. Their only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, also of Warren.

The bride chose a suit of navy blue, with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds. Her matron of honor, in navy nylon had a yellow rosebud corsage and matching accessories. After a short western trip, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home to friends at 206 Connecticut avenue.

IRVINE UNION HOLDS MEETING

The Irvine Presbyterian Ladies' Union held its April meeting at the home of Mrs. Raymond Crull, with 15 members in attendance. The meeting was opened with scripture reading and prayer. It was decided to hold a bake sale at the next meeting, and each member was asked to contribute something for the day's program. Mrs. Munksgard and Mrs. Huckabone were reported ill and were wished a speedy recovery.

The program topic for the evening was "The Life of Christ," written on colored paper in the form of Easter egg favors. A white elephant sale was held to build up the treasury and, to conclude, the hostess served refreshments from a table decorated with white candles and spring flowers. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Huling on May 15.

News About "The Mikado"

Where else can you find a combination of good music, good plot, witty verses and dialogue such as you find in a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta? "The Mikado," which is to be given in the high school auditorium on Monday and Tuesday evenings, April 28-29, by the Jamestown Gilbert and Sullivan Club, is being keenly anticipated by true lovers of this form of art.

Mrs. Stanley Weeks, who coaches the Jamestown group and brought the club to Warren last season, is again the director. Her artistry and perfection of performance has long been admired by all who have seen her work in this city.

Everyone is looking forward to seeing Yum-Yum, Pitti-sing, Peep-Bo, the three little maids from school, and Nanki-Po, as well as

Ko-Ko and all the other fantastic and delightful characters in "The Mikado."

It will be of interest locally that the part of the tenor, Nanki-Po, will be played by the Rev. Harold Knappenberger, Jr., of Bemus Point. Son of the Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Knappenberger, Franklin, who formerly served Grace church for eight years, the young Mr. Knappenberger was graduated from Warren High School in 1943, was a member of the Dragon Band and of the High School A Cappella Choir. During his junior and senior years, as a Dramatic Club member, he was in the cast for class plays. From high school, he went to Allegheny College, and later to Bemus Point, where he is pastor of the Methodist parish.

Penn State Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Kline, Frewsburg, N. Y., announce the engagement of their third daughter, Edna W., to Karl M. Grottenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl K. Grottenberger, Tidoute. Both young people are students at Pennsylvania State College, she as a sophomore majoring in home economics, he in industrial engineering. The bride-elect was graduated from Frewsburg Central School in 1950, her fiancé, alumnus of Tidoute High in 1944, served two years with the Army Air Force and completed his machinist apprenticeship at General Electric in Erie in 1950.

All members and friends are urged to be in attendance, since election of officers for the coming year will take place. Mrs. Elsie Hollabaugh will have charge of devotions and Edythe Nelson will be the hostess.

Participants In Elementary Art And Music Event

Announcement is made today by the directors of the groups which will be participating in the Art Exhibit and music concert of Warren borough elementary schools, to be held at 7:00 p. m. Tuesday, April 23, in Deaty Junior High School.

Taking part will be the Rhythm Band, comprised of Seneca school grades three and four, taught by Helen Gary; the beginners' Tonette Band of Violet Merchant's grade, four at McClintock building; folk dancing by South street's grade three taught by Guinevere Knapp; the Harmonica Band of Lacy grades five and six, with Alice Anderson as teacher; a choral speaking group of East street sixth graders, taught by Mildred Ochs and Paul Mutzabaugh; the advanced Tonette Band of Home street grade four, taught by Martha Bartoo.

A combined chorus will be made up of all sixth graders of borough public schools; McClintock, taught by David Olson; Home street, with Fred Brown as teacher; South street, Edith Berkman as teacher; Johnson, taught by Clementine Weaver; East street, Mildred Ochs and Paul Mutzabaugh, teachers; and Lacy, with Alice Anderson as instructor.

General direction of the concert is in the hands of Howard A. Anderson, elementary music supervisor, while Joseph Spence, art supervisor, has planned the Art Exhibit.

AROUND THE WORLD

SEEING SPOTS—Donna Atwood, an ice skating star who is Mrs. John Harris in private life, gave her twin sons a dig-in sample of their birthday cake in Chicago. The decor of this feast apparently matched their new Spring polka-dot diapers, but it's their two to its one that the dot-decorated cake didn't last as long as the lads' wearing apparel.

EARNING DOLLARS FOR BRITAIN—The Monarch, shown anchored in London, England, is the largest cable-laying vessel in the world and is coming to the U. S. Manned by a crew of 136 men, it will lay four cables, each 60 miles long, for the Bell Laboratories. The job is expected to earn $120,000.

RHYTHMIC ARTICHOKE—The winking, papier-mache artichoke in Ladispoli, Italy, is not only the world's largest, but it also seems to want to dance with a pretty country maid. Farmers in the region prepared colorful floats for the annual Feast of Artichokes after a lush harvest of the local product.

NOT MUCH TO RUN FOR—Pat Roper, a kennel worker in Maldstone, Kent, England, has just released the traps for three fast terriers to get off to a quick start. Racing with these dogs is a popular attraction at the city's zoo where a terrier track has been opened, complete with hurdles. Instead of chasing the usual rabbit, the canine speedsters make their rounds in pursuit of a small bundle of white feathers.

CAUSED BY THE ATOM—When dancer Gene Nelson got up early to go out and view the site of the Frenchman's Flat atomic blast from a snow-covered mountain near Las Vegas, Nev., he couldn't resist giving out with an acrobatic antic. This high leap may be the result of Gene's private source of atomic energy.

CLOSING IN—Used for training purposes by the 1st Armored Division, a helicopter hovers over a column of tanks during the recent joint Army-Air Force maneuver at Ft. Hood, Texas. The tanks were from the 4th Medium Tank Battalion of the division. Along with many other military uses, helicopters can be used to direct tank columns. (U. S. Army Photo)

WOW!—When water from Minnehaha Creek overflowed front yards in Minneapolis, Sue Michaelson, left, and Marty Von Eschen started something they just couldn't finish. They tried to go wading, which is always a popular pastime, but they hadn't known that melted ice water could remain quite so cold.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

IT'S A BARGAIN—A small admission charge will now permit visitors to inspect Palace House, the ancient, ancestral home of Lord Montagu of Beaulieu, Hampshire, England. The 25-year-old owner is shown polishing some pewter in the dining room before the estate with its gardens and museums opened.

LOST IN THOUGHT—A student at the Sorbonne in Paris matches the pose of a pensive statue in the Luxembourg Gardens on the Left Bank University area. In the Spring, it seems that young students' fancies also turn to thoughts of studying in the outdoors.

SUNDAY'S WASHDAY—When else can a busy GI find the time for laundry? Pfc. Norbert Frazer of St. Paul, Minn., used his day of leisure to hang his unmentionables on the gun of a tank in Korea. The day was sunny and fairly warm, and altogether right for completing the chore.

New Miracle Fiber Meeting Approval Of Warren Buyers

The remarkable qualities of DuPont's newest "miracle" fiber, 100% Dacron, tailored exclusively by Witty Brothers into lightweight suits for summer, have received enthusiastic confirmation by the wearers of these suits, according to The Prints Co., the only retailers of Witty Brothers clothing in Warren.

This confirmation is contained in a report entitled, "We asked the Man Who Wore One!" The report was compiled from four separate national surveys made to determine the reactions of approximately 1,000 wearers of Witty Brothers 100% Dacron suits under varying circumstances and weather conditions. Of those participating, 93.4% of the wearers reported great satisfaction with the wrinkle-resistance of the fabric and 96.8% reported most favorably on its unusual press-retention.

Other reactions cited the easy "at home" spot removal with soap and water, resulting in low maintenance cost, and the marked resistance of the suits to abrasion, perspiration, moths, mildew and fungus. The following statements are typical of many.

"... flew 25,000 miles—wore Dacron whenever airborne—no wrinkles."

"... wore it nearly every day of summer in Rome, Naples and Venice — never professionally cleaned or pressed."

"... spots removed with soap and water without leaving ring or wrinkles."

"... writer took only two 'Dacron' suits on 7-week tour of Europe—not cleaned or pressed... at all times looked fresh."

"... after exposure to rain the suit dried quickly and needed no pressing afterward. It had not wrinkled, didn't look baggy, retained its crease and looked just as it did before it got wet."

"... as a traveling man, this suit is just what I've been waiting for. When available—will add more."

"... could dance in hot weather without having this suit show perspiration."

"... much better than other summer fabrics."

"... most wrinkle-resistant suit ever owned."

"... looks as good at night as when put on in the morning."

"... free from wrinkles after several long trips."

"... best ever owned."

"... feels light and airy."

"... much easier to maintain than any suit ever owned."

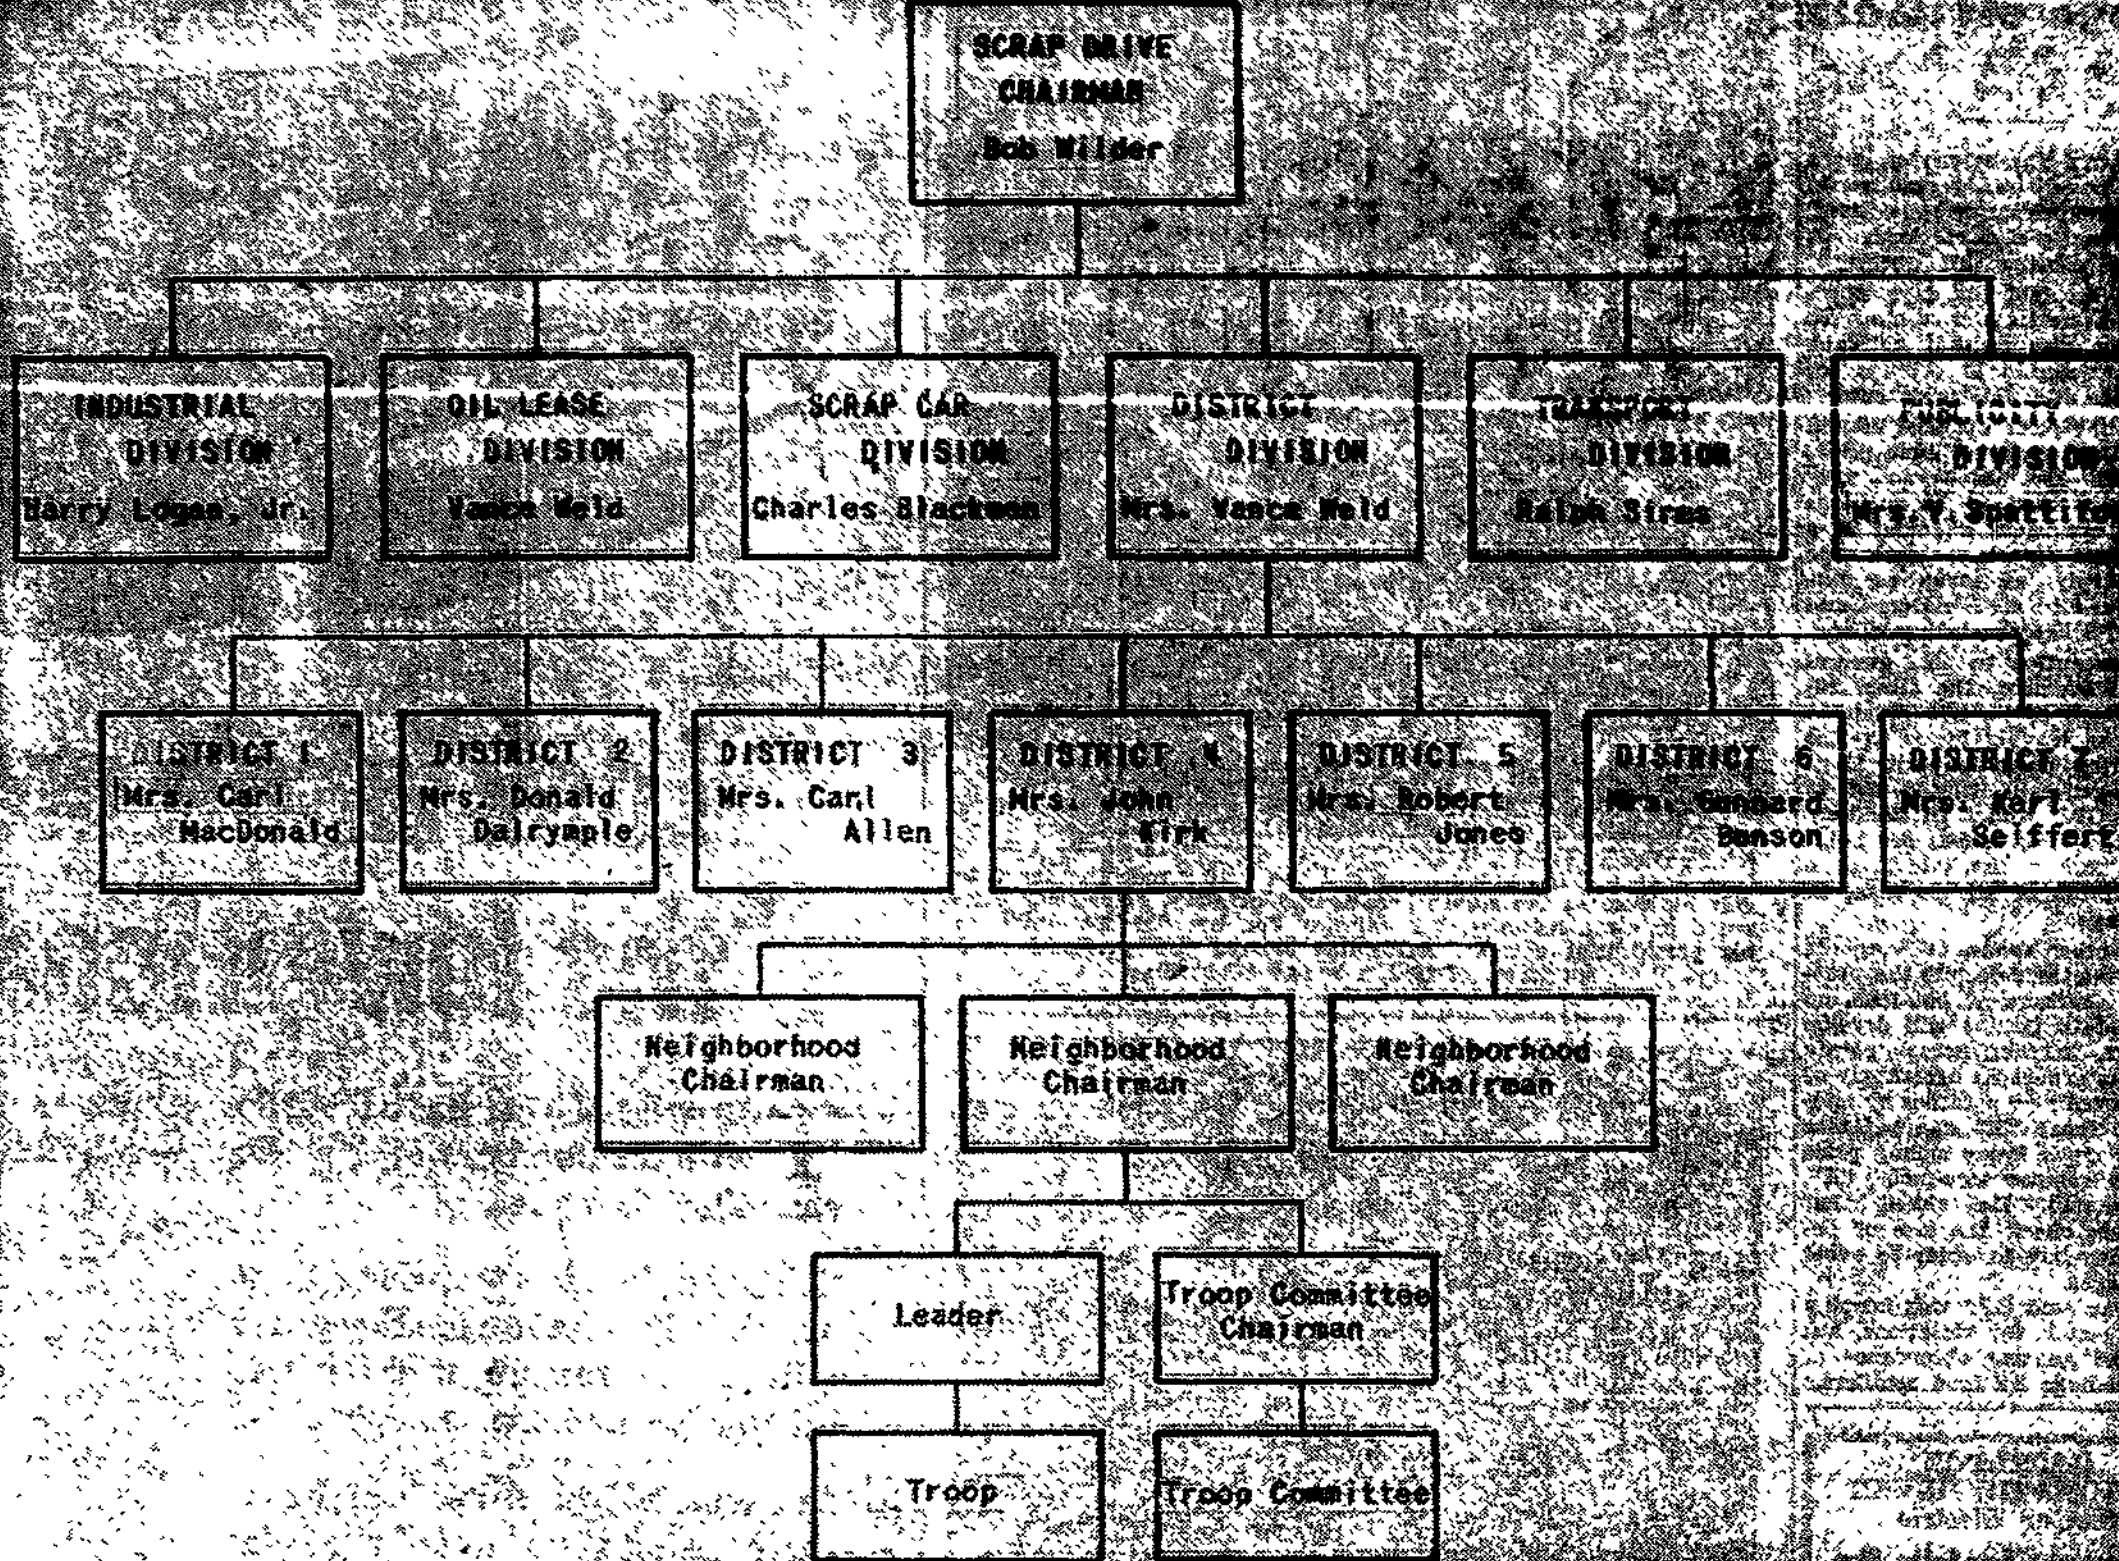

"... never anything like it—wonderful."

This year, Witty Brothers 100% Dacron suits are offered in an entirely new range of patterns, including Shantung Weaves, Crash Weaves, Overplaid and Stripes. In addition to the suits, 100% Dacron slacks are being sold by Witty Brothers' dealers as the greatest practical development for sport and casual wear. These slacks can be hand-washed at home.

Organization For Warren-Forest Co. Girl Scout Scrap Drive

Plans have been made during recent meetings of the Girl Scout Scrap Drive committees to tap the four major sources of scrap metal in Warren and Forest counties. A division has been set up to cover each one of these sources.

The Scrap Car Division, under the chairmanship of Charles Blackman, met last night. Plans were made for spotting, reporting, and collection of scrap cars, buses, trucks, and tractors. Further details will be announced later in the week. Any person who has a scrap car to donate or who knows of one that is available should call Charles Blackman at 609 in Warren.

Vance Weld, as chairman of the Oil Lease Division, has been contacting lease holders for scrap donations. Any lease holder who has a donation of scrap should call Mr. Weld at 1010.

Harry Logan, Jr., chairman of the Industrial Division, and his committee are contacting all the industrial concerns in the county in an attempt to put dormant scrap back into the defense production line, and at the same time put funds into Girl Scouting. If any industry has not been contacted, please call Harry Logan, Jr., at 880.

Mrs. Vance Weld, chairman of the District Division, and her committee are engaged in distributing tags for the coming "doorknob campaign" to the neighborhood chairmen within each district. The neighborhood chairmen are working with the leaders of the Girl Scout troops in each locality in distributing the tags which will inform each household that scrap items containing iron, steel, brass, copper, aluminum, and lead, and rags are being collected in the present drive.

Although the date set for the collection of residential scrap is May 10th, scrap cars and scrap from the industries and oil leases is being collected at the present time, and will continue to be collected until May 10th.

MERCURY BEATS ALL COMERS IN MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN

3 WINS IN 3 YEARS!

GRUELING 1,415-MILE TEST

What a test to prove Mercury and Lincoln superiority! This year's Mobilgas Economy Run covers 1,415 miles from Los Angeles to Sun Valley, Idaho. This longest and toughest test extends from below sea level in Death Valley to 8,010 feet in Arizona mountains. Mercury outperformed all others to win both the grand Sweepstakes prize and Class C 1st place. Lincoln won Class G.

Lincoln Again Best in Class — Runs Second in Sweepstakes

Now look at Mercury's three-year-in-a-row record in the Mobilgas Economy Run: three out of three times winner in its price class; two out of three times Sweepstakes winner against all cars in every class! Look at Lincoln, too. Lincoln won Class G first prize and provided Mercury's closest competition for top Sweepstakes honors.

The Mobilgas Economy Run is open to all cars of every make. To assure an equal chance for all, regardless of size and weight, ton-miles-per-gallon performance* determines the winner.

A 1952 Mercury Monterey Special Custom Sedan with optional overdrive swept the field with 59.7188 ton-miles-per-gallon, averaging 25.4093 miles per gallon. And the engine that did it is Mercury's famous V-8. The Lincoln Capri Sedan with Hydra-Matic transmission won its class prize with 58.9085 ton-miles-per-gallon, averaging 22.3562 miles per gallon.

Right now, in our showroom, is a 1952 Mercury similar to the one that won this official, impartial test. Why not stop around and give it a try? No obligation, of course.

*Ton-miles-per-gallon equals the car weight (with passengers), multiplied by miles travelled, divided by gallons of gasoline used.

Prices of Meat On Upsurge Officials Of the OPS Report

Spring and the return of green pastures have already resulted in higher meat prices for housewives, OPS regional director Joseph J. McBryan reported this week.

Within the last ten days, specials on beefsteaks and roasts have completely disappeared, he said, with prices again at ceilings for these more desirable meat cuts.

Nor is the price upsurge limited to beef. Both veal and lamb prices are higher too, McBryan said. Lamb chops went up as much as five and six cents a pound in a week. Prices for veal rose even more sharply, as much as nine cents over-all for cutlets and chops, OPS representatives found.

Only exception to this general upward movement, the direct result of more cattle and sheep on the ranges, leaving fewer for the slaughtering pens, is pork. Hogs are not generally turned out to pasture, OPS said. In addition, Chicago packing houses are bulging with pork stocks, said to make up two-thirds of all the meat in cold storage.

As to other foods, OPS agents now believe that, despite the present real shortage of potatoes, no actual potato famine will develop this year. In fact, some potato merchants expect an oversupply of smaller-sized new potatoes by mid-summer. These "B" size potatoes sell at a much lower ceiling price than the regular two-inch "A", McBryan said. He asked that housewives check the size of potatoes they buy in order to avoid over-charges.

McBryan said OPS was keeping a close watch for violations, but has found general observance of potato ceilings by food retailers.

KEYSTONE STATE'S GOVERNOR VOTES—Pennsylvania's Gov. John S. Fine prepares to pull the voting machine lever to cast his vote in the state's presidential primary. Governor Fine voted in his hometown of Nanticoke, Pa., but did not announce his presidential choice. Associates believe the governor is a supporter of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

HE LIKES IKE—Wearing his "I Like Ike" campaign button, Pennsylvania's Sen. James Duff leaves a voting booth in Carnegie, Pa., after casting his vote in the state's primary election. Senator Duff is an ardent Eisenhower supporter.

Look who's crowding "the low-priced three"

THE price of a car has a lot to do with the number of folks who can afford to own it.

So the leaders in sales—for almost a generation—have been three cars whose bid for popularity has included a potent price appeal.

But who do you think is right on their heels? Who has led the field, outside "the low-priced three"—ever since 1938?

Well, sir, the name is Buick.

You get more power. You get "big-car feel."

You get an honest-to-goodness Million Dollar Ride.

You get, in other words, an all-round money's worth of great engineering that makes any Buick—

SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER—a standout buy in its field.

That's not just our say-so. It's what car buyers have said with their hard-earned dollars, year after year.

We think you ought to find out for yourself what these other folks have discovered.

We think you ought to find out why so many Buick buyers are trading in one of the so-called "low-priced three."

We think you ought to compare the size, compare the performance, compare the price, because we know what you'll find out:

If you can afford a new car, you can afford a Buick.

Why not find out for yourself what's behind this popularity?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Buicks. †Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster only.

ONLY BUICK PROVIDES THEM ALL

FIREBALL 8 ENGINE—of valve in head design makes high compression count for more.
NEW WIDE-BAND BRAKES—for smoother, more positive control.
MILLION DOLLAR RIDE—with 4-wheel coil springing and road steady torque.
TOP-CAPACITY TRUNKS—more luggage room than ever in most models.
NEW TWO-TONE INTERIORS—in most models, grace Buick's body by Fisher.
SWEEPSPAR STYLING—adds gleaming smoothness to all models.

Plus These, Too, On ROADMASTER:

AIRPOWER CARBURETION—with highest horsepower in Buick history.
MORE MILES PER GALLON—POWER STEERING—greatly eases parking and turning without losing that firm feel.

DOOMROCK

BY ARCHIE JOSCELYN

Chapter 5

OFF at the side of the room, where the gaming tables were ranged, a screen had been erected to partially conceal them, to assure a sort of privacy on the day of the spring. If that water was impounded, then distributed as needed to irrigate a big stretch of semi-desert, it would add tremendously to the productivity of his domain.

He sat envisioning it, where the dam would be placed, the lake which would result the necessary operations to make the desert bloom. Finally he swung his horse, and even as he did, a rifle made loud thunder against the brooding silence.

Steve felt the pluck of the bullet through the left sleeve of his coat, pricking the skin. He realized instantly that only his swinging horse had saved his life. Somebody had taken plenty of time in aiming, while he made a good target—but had delayed just a fraction too long.

RAGE was like a torch lit in him. Somebody had tried cold-bloodedly to murder him. Spurring he put his horse to a gallop. The bullet had come from less than a quarter of a mile away, where a rise offered good shelter. There the gunman could have hidden without being seen, taking his time.

Swiftly his guess was proven correct. Two more bullets spat at him, fired hastily, with panic jerking the trigger. The gunman, who had dismounted for a good aim, ran wildly for his horse and fled. Steve set his glass down. The street was clear when Steve returned to it. He went about his business, eager to get done and out of town again.

His business, when finally transacted, had taken up half the day. It was afternoon now, and instead of heading straight back, he circled to have a look at some of the Diamond R range which he hadn't visited in a long while.

Steve eyed the wide sweep of land appreciatively. As for engineering, he'd had the idea, before he ever went East, of what he wanted the knowledge for. A man could put a dam back in here, trapping and holding the vast run-off of snow water in the Spring. If that water was impounded, then distributed as needed to irrigate a big stretch of semi-desert, it would add tremendously to the productivity of his domain.

He sat envisioning it, where the dam would be placed, the lake which would result the necessary operations to make the desert bloom. Finally he swung his horse, and even as he did, a rifle made loud thunder against the brooding silence.

Steve felt the pluck of the bullet through the left sleeve of his coat, pricking the skin. He realized instantly that only his swinging horse had saved his life. Somebody had taken plenty of time in aiming, while he made a good target—but had delayed just a fraction too long.

Swiftly his guess was proven correct. Two more bullets spat at him, fired hastily, with panic jerking the trigger. The gunman, who had dismounted for a good aim, ran wildly for his horse and fled. Steve set his glass down. The street was clear when Steve returned to it. He went about his business, eager to get done and out of town again.

His business, when finally transacted, had taken up half the day. It was afternoon now, and instead of heading straight back, he circled to have a look at some of the Diamond R range which he hadn't visited in a long while.

Steve eyed the wide sweep of land appreciatively. As for engineering, he'd had the idea, before him, a cayuse which could dust off its hoofs and seem to fly. It was a long revolver shot, but Steve was icy cool now. He fired, took his time and fired again, and at the second crack of the gun the other rider jerked, flopping like a loose garment. An instant later, clutching wildly for a hold on the horn and missing, he spilled from the saddle.

He rolled, tried to come to his feet, and sank back. He'd lost the rifle, but he still had a short gun. And now, made cool by desperation, he tugged this loose and tried to raise it, as Steve flung himself from his own horse.

"Quit it!" he warned. He had no desire to kill the man—only to make him a prisoner. He was almost upon him—too close for the gunman to miss, yet just too far to reach and overpower him in a leap, before he could fire. The other gun was clear of leather and raising. Steve read the sure purpose in the killer's eyes, and he had no recourse. His own gun was a fraction faster.

Steve's bullet hit right above the heart. He would have no information from the lips of this man.

But it looked as if, dying, the gunman had found another way of telling. He had half-risen with his final effort, and now he flopped convulsively, falling in a sprawled heap. Something spilled out of his pocket, gleaming brightly in the sun which poised at horizon's edge as if to watch the finish of this tableau.

Steve stared, incredulity, shocked disbelief, in him. That was a spang-new golden eagle, such a coin as was rarely seen in these parts—as the game-keeper in the saloon had been commenting only a few hours before. A second like it was at the edge of the pocket.

Grimly, Steve emptied the pocket, counted its contents. There were thirty of the coins—three hundred dollars in bright new-minted gold. Gold which, Steve was only too sure, he had seen in the Wolf Saloon as Matt Tarson reached to pick it up.

Find Lifeless Body of William Wright, Retired
(From Page One)
O., July 13, 1900, son of William W. and Minnie H. Wright, who came here about 1918. He was a graduate of East High School in Cleveland, spent a year each at Yale and Columbia, and two years at Ohio State. After his schooling, he was assistant advertising manager at what is now Gimbel's store in Pittsburgh. He also wrote advertising for the Joseph Feiss Co. store in Cleveland before deciding to locate in Warren.
Coming here in 1928 Mr. Wright associated himself with the Metzger-Wright Co. store in advertising and promotion work, later being named vice president and general manager until his retirement about two years ago.
He was married August 25, 1928, at Bellefontaine, Ohio, and is survived by his wife Margaret, daughter Andrea, a brother, Francis, in Cleveland, and several nephews.
He was a faithful member of the First Methodist church, the Gracian Discussion Group, the Union Carbide . . . 59 1/2

Great Books Organization, and the Warren Players.
In addition to his many other hobbies and activities, Mr. Wright spent much of his time composing plays, poems and short stories, many of which have appeared in leading magazines and books. One of his latest efforts was the historical play about Warren county, "Legend of The Silent Rifles," which won a recent radio play-writing contest and was later broadcast.
Removal was made to the Leo D. Gibson Funeral Home. Plans for the services will be announced later.
ABANDON APPEAL
Harrisburg, April 23—(AP)—A Lawrence county coal firm has abandoned an appeal in Dauphin county against a Commonwealth order to prevent stream pollution in Perry township, Lawrence county.
The court was notified of the dropping of the suit by Romeo W. Fontana, Wampum, Lawrence county.
DIVORCES GRANTED
Judge Allison D. Wade yesterday granted two divorces in the first day of a two-day session of court, to Eloise Marine Halvorson from Vern Kenneth Halvorson, and Frances S. Hunt from William K. Hunt. Three divorces were granted today, as follows: Hazel May Mangini vs. John R. Mangini, Ray S. Holmes vs. Josephine Holmes, and Bebe M. Yeakey vs. Richard D. Yeakey.

of a much-discussed hand that was played in that same tournament last year. Some of the players will recall it with pleasure, but others put it in the class with toothache and income tax.

Practically everybody who held the South cards got to six spades. If West opened the deuce of diamonds there was no problem; South could make sure of his small slam without abandoning his play for an extra trick. But if West opened the deuce of hearts, as was the case at a few tables, South had a problem on his hands. At rubber bridge there would be no problem, of course. South would play the four of hearts from the dummy at the first trick. (Shame on you if you weren't planning to make that play.)
East would win the first trick, of course, but no matter what East returned South could win in his own hand, draw three trumps, cash the top clubs and ruff a club, enter dummy with a diamond to ruff another club, and enter dummy again with the ace of hearts to get a discard on dummy's last club.
Since the hand was actually being played in a match-point tournament, life was not so simple for South. If he made the safe play at the first trick, he could be sure of the small slam but would have no chance at all for the extra trick. In a tournament, the extra trick is often just as important as the contract itself.
So at most of these tables South hopefully guessed the queen of hearts at the first trick. This play gave them the best chance for the extra trick, but it turned out disastrously.
East won the king of hearts and returned the suit, knocking out dummy's ace. Now South could draw trumps, cash the top clubs and ruff a club, but then his hope for the slam faded away. There was only one entry left in dummy (the king of diamonds), and South needed two entries there to set up the last clubs and then get back to cash it. The early removal of the ace of hearts had proven fatal.

SEIZURE CANCELLATION DEMANDED BY SENATE
By G. MILTON KELLY
Washington, April 23—(AP)—President Truman, under heavy senate fire and facing a house move to impeach him, stuck to his guns today in the fight with Congress over his seizure of the steel plants.
A powerful senate drive to force him to cancel the seizure order fell just short of the two-thirds majority vote it required yesterday. But its Republican backers led by Sen. Knowland of California redoubled their cries of "dictator" and cast about for other devices.
Actually 47 senators, 11 of them Democrats, voted for the move, and only 29 voted against it. Not a Republican voted "no." A switch of four votes would have provided the two-thirds margin needed to suspend senate rules and permit action on Knowland's proposal to forbid the use of any federal funds in the seizure.
The senate already had voted Monday, 44 to 31, to ban the use of any money in a specific appropriation bill to carry out the order, but its backers said this was only a gesture.

The Senate Banking Committee ordered a new investigation into government handling of the steel dispute, which many of its members have denounced vigorously.

Now's the time to bring your camera in for a free check-up. We'll give it a thorough going over. If repairs are necessary, a cost estimate will be submitted.

IT STOVE LEAGUE MEETS, LEARNS 796 BOYS ARE REGISTERED TO PLAY BASEBALL

INITIATIVE PLANS CALL FOR TEAMS TO BE SET UP AT MEETING ON TUESDAY

finite resurgence of interest in Hot Stove League was evident when committee members met in the Trinity Methodist Parish House last night, and that 796 boys had registered to play ball in the league season.

It had been thought that the number would decrease this year, but the short six-day initiation period, the young men came out in force.

The next meeting of Hot Stove League members was called for next Tuesday night, when more time can be spent on setting up the teams. The league will not get started until the end of the school term and the schedule will not be worked out until after May 5, when the Sun-Set League schedule is to be made out.

Kinzua Will Oppose Marlin-Rockwell In First League Game

Five teams are set for the opening of the Penn-York Semi-Pro Baseball league May 25, according to an announcement by President "Red" Swanson, of Warren, after a meeting at the Collins Sport Shop in Jamestown.

Inaugural clashes find Ellington at Westfield, while Kinzua meets Marlin-Rockwell at the Warren State Hospital grounds. In the other battle, Dunkirk will meet the circuit's sixth member, unnamed as yet. Entries close May 12.

President Swanson was in charge, and announcement was made that the final meeting before the opening action will be held May 12 at Collins.

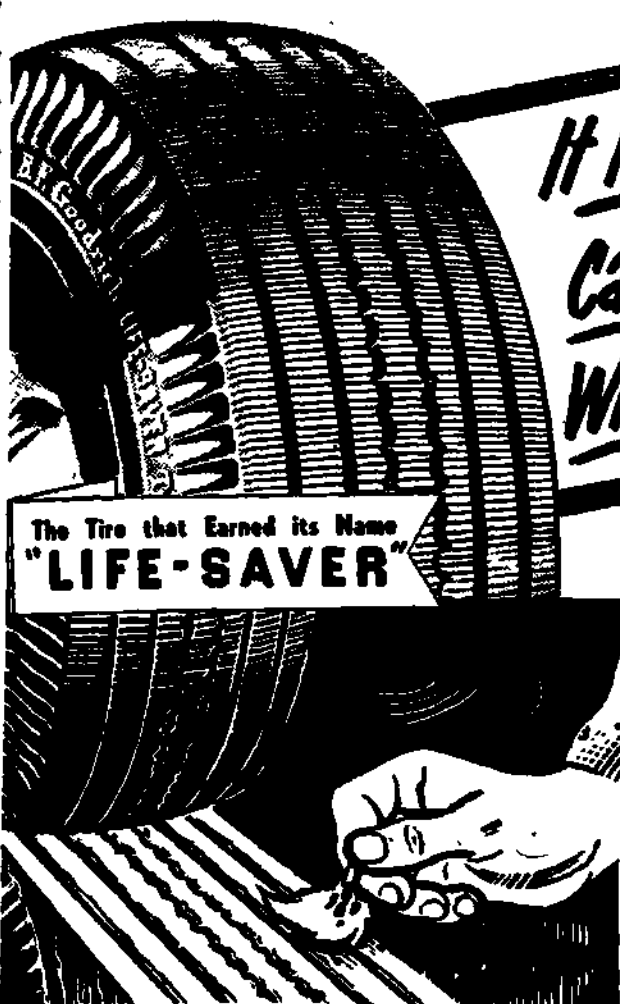

Members of the Dunkirk Club have voted to enter the P-Y Semi-Pro League instead of the Western Division of the Buffalo suburban circuit.

Experience Gained As Youngville And Warren Hold Meet

A green Youngville High track team and a similar group of Warren High newcomers tucked a little experience under their belts yesterday afternoon in a practice meet at Beatty Field.

It was the first time in many years that the Eagles have fielded a track team, and to many of the boys it was the first time they had ever seen or participated in one. The last scheduled meet between Warren and Youngville was in 1932.

All the competition was in the running events yesterday, with the exception of the javelin, as the Youngville field is not yet in condition to allow much heavy work.

In general the Red and White thinclads, under their coach Charley Paul, look quite well. They have a big attraction in Dick Wood, a sophomore, who showed plenty of speed and did the 100-yard dash in 10.7 seconds.

While most of the Warren competitors were non-lettermen, the veterans entered most of the races under a handicap to keep in shape for the opening meet with Titusville here on Friday afternoon. The Rockets showed up well against Oil City last Friday and will be a tough foe for the Briggsman.

Two Teams of Elk Bowlers to Enter National Tourney

Two teams of bowlers from the Elks' League are completing plans to participate in the Elks' National Bowling Tournament at South Bend, Ind.

The Grosch Brothers team will be composed of Glenn and Norman Grosch, Franklin Berman, Jimmy Thomas and Allen Vermilyea. The Nine-O Garage will be represented by Carl Jensen, Martin Swanson, Ernie Ellberg, Everett Hoagvall and Harold Swanson.

The bowlers will make the trip over the New York Central, leaving Westfield, N. Y., on the evening of May 2, and are scheduled to compete on May 3 and 4.

Gene Smith Out For His 31st Victory

Washington, April 23—P—Unbeaten Gene Smith, the little guy with the big punch, takes aim tonight at the fighter he hopes will be his 31st consecutive victim, Fabella Chavez of Hollywood.

The 10-round fight will be broadcast and televised nationally starting at 10 p. m. (EST).

Offhand, the 20-year-old Smith appears to have all the best of it. Not only has he won all his 30 pro fights, but he has ended 23 of them by knockouts.

These results—and an assist from Uncle Sam—have moved him up until he's the No. 2 active featherweight in the United States. He's rated fifth best in the world, active and inactive.

Champion Sandy Saddler lost a unanimous decision to his draft board, was inducted into the Army, and isn't likely to see ring action for a couple of years.

★ GRAYSON'S SCOREBOARD ★

Aged Athletics Set Records; Go Nowhere With Little Future

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—(NEA)—The Athletics have made more than 600 double plays in three years, their 219 being the major league seasonal record.

Last year the Philadelphia Athletics grounded into fewer double plays than any other club. They showed the way in fielding.

Ferris Fain led the wheel in batting with .344. Gus Zernial topped it in home runs and runs-batted-in. The side set the pace in doubles.

The A's established more records, had more outstanding individual performances than you could shake a stick at.

Only the Giants of the National League were hotter in the run down the stretch.

The A's were the American League giant killers. At different times, and when it hurt most, they knocked off the White Sox twice, the Indians, Yankees and Red Sox, after not having won a game in Boston since 1948.

Yet the A's wound up a lukewarm sixth.

Now they're starting another campaign with infielders almost as old as Connie Mack. Pete Suder is 35, Eddie Joost, 36, and the third basemen, Hitchcock and Majeski, 34 and 35, respectively.

THE A's could be all right as long as the varsity stays in one piece. There is little in the way of a bench, nothing coming up and the Macks are heavily in debt.

Jimmy Dykes' one big move is putting valiant Elmer Veto in center field and instructing Zernial, in left, and Allie Clark, in right, to stay close to the foul lines. There is nothing the flying Czech won't get this side of the fence and last season he batted better than .300 for the fifth time.

Dykes' pitching could be formidable, especially if the equipment of the right-handed Joe Coleman and towering Dick Fowler comes around. They went wrong about the same time in 1950. Coleman developed tendon trouble in his shoulder, but toward the end of last season was as fast as anybody. Fowler has been OK in spots, but represents a larger question mark than Coleman.

The other pitchers are the right-handed Hooper, Kucab, Burtzsch, Scheib and Harry Byrd, who did well with Savannah last trip. The club is stronger on the left-hand side with Shantz, Marun, Kelnner and Zoldak.

The catchers—Astroth, Murray and Tipton—are hardly more than adequate.

Falcon Manager To Show Pictures At Marconi on Friday

The Marconi Town club will be the gathering place for baseball fans, Friday evening, when Manager Ray Peebles of the Jamestown Falcons, will give a baseball talk and will show some moving pictures of baseball, including the 1951 World Series games.

Peebles, former well known sports writer in Erie, has appeared before the Youngville Kiwanians, the Warren Rotary and Sports Boosters, and is an interesting speaker.

His engagement at the Marconi club is set for 7:30 Friday, with a good crowd expected, and the evening will also include the usual TV fight program after Peebles has shown his pictures.

Chicago Cubs Blast Pirates for 17 Hits

Pittsburgh, April 23—(P)—The Chicago Cubs blasted four Pittsburgh Pirates for 17 hits last night, seven of them in an eight-run fourth inning, to defeat the collar dwellers, 13-2.

Bill Howerton, who drove in both Buc runs, got four of the nine sacrifices allowed by Bob Rush. Howerton, ordinarily an outfielder, played third base and committed two of the Bucs' four errors.

Allegheny College Gets Kenyon Coach

Meadville, Pa., April 23—P—Allegheny College today named its new head football coach 35-year-old David C. Henderson, coach the last six years at Kenyon College, Gambier, O.

Henderson succeeds Bill Dadio, now head line coach for the Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League.

At Kenyon, Henderson's grid teams won 14, lost 24 and tied one. In 1950 he had an undefeated season. He also coached other sports.

A native of Bedford, Ohio, Henderson graduated from Wooster (Ohio) College in 1939. He is married and has two children, Sally, 14, and Jimmy, 4. The family will move here in mid-June, in time for Henderson to start pre-season football practice.

JOHNSTOWN WINS
Johnstown, April 23—(P)—The Johnstown Jets easily beat Toledo 6-1 last night to cop their third win in the best-of-seven series for the U. S. amateur hockey championship. The Jets, winners of the Eastern Hockey League championship playoffs, will play Toledo here again Thursday. Toledo won the International League championship.

Why the right power is so important to truck buyers

WHEN a truck engine is too small for the job, you'll pay in poor performance and high upkeep. When it's too big, you'll waste money on operating costs.

To be sure of the right power for top performance and top economy on every job, Dodge builds eight great truck engines. There's one that's "Job-Rated" to fit your kind of work.

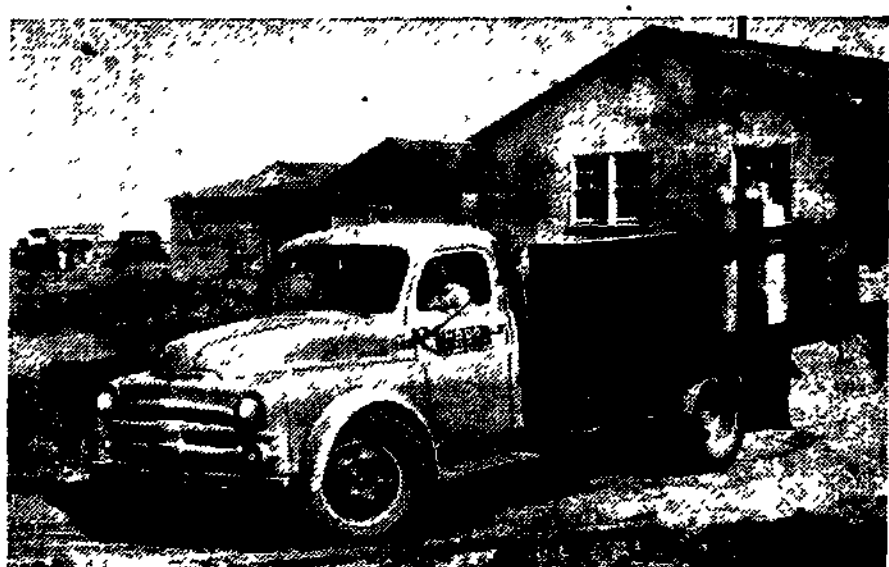

In fact, you get a truck that's "Job-Rated" in every way. Every load-moving unit is factory-engineered to meet the most severe operating conditions. And every load-carrying unit is factory-engineered to provide the strength and capacity needed.

Visit your friendly Dodge dealer today for all the facts about Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks.

Tests prove power with economy. To save gas, powerful Dodge truck engines employ compression ratios as high as 7.0 to 1. And on high-tonnage models, a twin carburetion and exhaust system is used.

Records show low upkeep. For dependability and low repair costs, rugged Dodge truck engines have 4-ring pistons with chrome-plated top ring and heat-resisting exhaust valve seat inserts.

Owners report, "Greater value!" You get all these plus values: Cyclebond brake linings; easier handling, sharper turning; gyro Fluid Drive available on all 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton and Route-Van models.

"When power is needed, Dodge trucks have it!"

"We've been big Dodge users for many years, because our business demands trucks that are dependable, economical and rugged."

"We do most of our driving over rough ground, a lot of it in the mud. The trucks work with crews who are laying pipe in the field. This kind of hauling calls for plenty of power to carry equipment to the men."

"And when power is needed, Dodge trucks have it! They seem to be able to pull anything."

says C. R. SHEARMAN, Hood Construction Co., Lynwood, Calif.

Services Friday For Ernest F. Anundson, Resident 72 Years

Ernest F. Anundson, who died yesterday at the Warren General Hospital following a stroke suffered on Sunday, was born in Sweden Dec. 20, 1875. He came to Sheffield with his parents when he was four years of age and has resided in Sheffield for the past 72 years.

The decedent was educated in the Sheffield schools following which he left for Erie and took a four year apprenticeship course in monument cutting, returning to Sheffield and setting up his own business. Up to his demise he was still dealing in monuments, but his major business for the past fifty years has been as a general contractor in building.

He was very active in civic affairs and always worked for the betterment of his home town. He was a director of the Sheffield Furniture Co. when that firm was in existence and was, up to his death, a trustee of the remaining land, buildings and assets.

Mr. Anundson has building monuments all through this section of the country. He built the new laundry building at the Warren State Hospital; Post Office at Union City; schools in Tiona, Sheffield, Starbuck, Home Street, Warren; Akron, N. Y. He built several business blocks in Warren and Sheffield. He also constructed the first cement highway 33 years ago through the town of Sheffield.

His sons took over active affairs after their return from the second World War while their father took life more easy.

Surviving beside his widow are the following children: Mrs. Gladys Shrigley of Buffalo; Mrs. Alma Smith of Wichita Falls, Texas; Mrs. Alphida Howe of Kenmore, N. Y.; Mrs. Louise Thompson of Williamsport, N. Y.; Lorraine T. and Philip F. of Sheffield; also 11 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Violet Bowen of Randolph, N. Y.; Mrs. Alma Freund of Erie, Pa. and three brothers, Edwin of Erie, Walter of Chicago and Arthur of Randolph, N. Y.

Funeral services will be held from the late home on West Main street Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Hans Pearson of Bethany Lutheran church officiating. Interment in Sheffield cemetery.

Mr. Anundson having suffered from heart trouble, made a request that instead of flowers his friends kindly give to the "Heart Fund" in his memory.

Sherwood Hotel Is Threatened by Fire

Timely discovery and prompt action averted what might have been a serious fire, at the Sherwood Hotel at 8:55 Tuesday morning. The fire is presumed to have started from a carelessly tossed cigarette which lit on a wood shingle roof.

Firemen at headquarters a block away discovered the blazing roof, blew the siren and with a crew of 21 men were on the job before the flames had gained much headway. Firemen were out 15 minutes, damage was slight.

Again at 12:05 they were called to subdue a grass fire that was running wild in the East Branch sector, endangering property. A crew of 18 answered this alarm with two trucks. With water from the booster tank, and two Indian back pumps the situation was taken care of without property damage. They were out 20 minutes.

Alice Haines And Garland Dean Wed

Miss Alice Haines, and Garland Dean of Sergeant, Pa., were united in marriage by Rev. Grant Mottern at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haight of Saybrook. Miss Haines is a niece of Mr. Walter Haight. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother in Sergeant. The Deans will make their home in Sergeant for the present.

Obituaries
ROBERT RUSHTON
Word is received here today from Malvern, Pa., that Robert Rushton, 44 year old director of drawing at the Philadelphia Museum School of Art, died at his home on Tuesday after an illness of three months.
Besides his wife, Agnes Alfsen Rushton, formerly of Ludlow, he leaves one son, Robertson Rushton, at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rushton, of Malvern. Services in his memory will be held from the Maugham Funeral Home in Malvern at 10 30 a. m. Friday.
EMMA K. KELLER
Miss Emma K. Keller, 18 East St. Clair street, died at 1:30 a. m. today in Warren General Hospital, after a lingering illness. Born November 12, 1867, she was the oldest daughter of John and Katharine Keller. She had spent her entire lifetime in Warren and was a member of First Lutheran church. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Clara Crocker, Warren; two nephews and a niece, Melvin and Hazel Keller, of Warren, and Donald Cox, of Carrollton, Ky.; also a grand-nephew, Donald Keller Cox.
Removal has been made to the Peterson Funeral Home, from where services in her memory will be held at 2:00 p. m. Friday. The Rev. Edward K. Rogers, Lutheran minister, will officiate and interment will be made in Oakland cemetery. Friends will be received at the funeral home at the usual calling hours, starting Thursday afternoon.
WILLIAM WESCOTT
William Wescott, 68, was found dead in his bed at the home of Fred Cracker, near Chancellors Valley early this morning. The investigation by the coroner's office revealed that he had died in his sleep, apparently from a heart attack.
Mr. Wescott was born in Garland January 3, 1884, and spent his entire life in the vicinity of Garland, Pittsfield and Youngville. He had been employed as a farm hand at the Cracker home in recent years.
He is survived by two sisters and a brother: Mrs. Tracy Whitten and Merle Wescott, both of Warren, and Miss Jessie Wescott, Saint Petersburg, Fla. Several nephews and nieces also survive.
Removal was made to the Templeton Funeral Home in this city where services will be held Friday at an hour to be announced later.
INFANT MCINTYRE
Services were held at the Templeton Funeral Home at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday for Robert Clair, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clair McIntyre, 910 Stone avenue. The Rev. George D. Snow, pastor of Pilgrum Holiness church, officiated and interment was made in Oakland cemetery, with two uncles, Robert Cable and Millard Baxter, as casket bearers.
Attending the rites from away were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cable, Ahquippa; Sgt. Paul Cable, Camp Gordon, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bryant, Waterford.
PERSONAL ITEMS
Miss Emma L. Valentine, Clarendon, is returning home this week after spending the winter months in Tampa, Fla.
IN MEMORIAM

TED SHATTUCK IS AIR FORCE ENLISTEE
Fred Shattuck, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Shattuck, 212 Madison avenue, left Warren by bus at 11:25 this morning for Pittsburgh, where he will take a physical examination for enlistment in the U. S. Air Force. Providing he passes the exam, he will immediately be assigned to a base.
Known better as "Ted" to his many friends, Shattuck won much fame in the field of sports, in and around Warren during his high school days and later in college.
A graduate in the Warren High School class of 1949, Ted received eight coveted "W"s, three in both basketball and football and two in baseball. After graduation he was farmed out from State College to California State Teachers' College, where he played his first college ball, and then played offensive fullback for Penn State in 1950 and 1951. Ted was named to the All-State defensive team in 1951, his junior year.
The first of this year Ted played, back to the Stone Age, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.
City basketball league and at the time of his enlistment was employed by the Struthers-Wells Company.

Fire Department At Sugar Grove Makes Three Runs in Week

Sugar Grove, April 22—Local firemen had three runs to grass fires last week, with Assistant Chief John Kolchak in charge of the men. On Wednesday, about 10 acres burned over before firemen arrived near the Lutheran cemetery at the junction of the Warren and Youngsville roads; on Thursday, several acres were burned on the McGrath farm on Big Tree road, including several hives of bees owned by William McGrath. Soon after returning from that run, the men were called out again to the Charles Black farm on Patchen Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitchell and daughter, Nancy, Ashville, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mitchell and daughter, Mary Lou, Jamestown, were Easter guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jones. Mrs. Caroline Depas and daughter, Lucinda, were also guests.

Barbara Hennessey, Oil City, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clair Carlson, and family.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Landin were their sons, Mr. and Mrs. David Landin and family, Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Landin and family, Kingwood, W. Va.

Charles S. Ison, who has been a surgical patient in WCA Hospital, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Grant and son, Conrad, Verona, Canada, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Grant and family.

Mrs. R. S. Cumming, who has been spending the winter months with her son, Stuart Cumming, and wife at Greenfield, Mass., has returned home.

Lt. Paul Carlberg, Jr., and his wife returned to Westover Field, Mass., Friday after spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carlberg and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Mickelson. They were accompanied by Mrs. Mickelson, who will enjoy a week's visit to New York City.

YOUR FOREST RANGER

L. E. Steff

A five-man crew is now engaged in pruning crop trees on some of the oldest pine plantations on the Northern District of the Allegheny National Forest.

This work is the first of this nature ever carried out on the forest, and most of it can be regarded as experimental.

There are approximately eleven thousand acres of successful plantations located on the forest, and many of them will reach that stage in their development, within the next three to five years, when pruning can be most effectively undertaken. Unfortunately several thousand acres of plantations have been unsuccessful in a large measure due to more deer than there was natural feed to support. Many local residents can remember when these plantations were being established during the CCC days, and some probably participated in the extensive planting program.

In pruning 150 to 200 crop trees per acre we feel that the money is being well spent, and will yield a substantial profit in the long run, because of the quality, knot-free material that will be produced in the butt logs of the treated trees. Because not more than one-third of the live branches forming the crown should be pruned, in addition to the lower dead branches, the bulk of the pruning at this time will not exceed twelve feet in height.

Last week the crew started in the Norway pine plantations at Hoffman Farm area near Ludlow. At present they are engaged in pruning crop trees in the small Norway pine plantation at the Heart's Content campground. This plantation was planted at the start of the depression years, about 1930, by a stand-by or "snap" crew of fire fighters which was located near the Wheeler lookout tower in case of forest fires. A recent examination of the plantation disclosed that the white pine, which forms a minor component of this plantation, has for the most part been so badly weeviled as to be worthless, or has already been overtopped by the Norway pine and killed.

After the crop trees are pruned a thinning of the remaining trees is desirable in this plantation with its close spacing of trees. Since this plantation will be for many years a demonstration area, easily accessible to the public, a worthwhile project is going to be carried out by the Warren County Council of Boy Scouts in which the Explorer Scouts and Boy Scouts can participate. Briefly, this will provide them with the opportunity to cut and remove the remaining trees, which are not intended to be left to grow into a timber crop for use in their various activities. Such a project will be carried out over several seasons, and would provide nice small, straight pine logs for signal towers, Adirondack type shelters, rustic bridges and other uses. This will provide some measure of conservation training and experience at the "grass roots" level for a large group of boys, and the remaining crop trees would benefit greatly by the removal of these competing trees.

One can easily see from the above what we have to go through in order to raise a crop of trees. It is no small wonder that a forest ranger preaches forest fire prevention at the drop of a hat. It is easy to see that everyone loses when a forest burns. But no matter how much the ranger talks—as Smokey Bear says—"ONLY YOU CAN PREVENT FOREST FIRES."

FIREMEN AT SUGAR GROVE RAISING FUND

Sugar Grove, Apr. 22—The annual entertainment staged by the Sugar Grove firemen as a fund-raising project drew a large crowd to the high school auditorium.

Jack Abbott, program chairman, introduced the master of ceremonies, Jim Sharp, Jamestown, who is always a welcome visitor to Sugar Grove. Scott Stuart, Jr., fire chief, spoke briefly, reviewing the history of the department and listing the equipment now owned. He asked that everyone in the community inform them of ponds being made and any other sources of water to help them with their work.

The Symphonic Four of Jamestown and Doyle Carlson and John Stuart, Jr., provided the entertainment of music and fun.

Fred Bauer, athletic director, announced the program by the physical education department of the school to be presented at a May party in the gymnasium Thursday evening, May 1st, with everyone in the community invited.
